

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), the Government moved for detention pending trial and the Defendant waived his right to a detention hearing. That waiver of detention hearing is entered in the record at Dkt. No. 53. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[ ] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

☐ (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☐ (1) As a condition of release of the defendant, bond was set as follows:

☒ (3) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

☒ (4) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 33 year old born in Longmont, Colorado. Defendant's last contact with his mother (who resides in Maryland) was a year ago, and his last contact with his father (who resides in Palm Coast, Florida) was a month ago. Defendant's brother resides in Maryland and his sister resides in California. Defendant has four children from previous dating relationships. For the past two years, Defendant has been homeless, occasionally staying on the street and at local motels when he can afford the rate.
2. Defendant has been unemployed for the past year and a half.
3. Defendant reported a history of illicit drug use, including marijuana and methamphetamines.
4. Defendant has a lengthy criminal history including three convictions for felony possession of a controlled substance, and convictions for misdemeanor trespassing, and misdemeanor possession of marijuana.
5. Defendant is currently charged with (1) conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute a controlled substance in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841 and 846, (2) conspiracy to possess a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 18 U.S.C. 924, and (3) being a felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922. He is facing a penalty of (1) 10 years to life in prison for the first count, (2) up to 20 years in prison for the second count, and (3) up to 10 years in prison for the third count.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
